Protocols

Protocols have still not changed in terms of 2/3/4 person crews.

Rig Checks (New Jumpkits)

Please let us know well in advance if things are on the verge of running out. I have a bunch of N95s, surgical masks, hand soap, wipes, paper towels, etc. at home so please let me know when things run out or are on the verge of running out so I can stop by and replenish them. Last week, PTEMS told me that there were almost no N95s left and only a handful of surgical masks left in total at the Squad. Please make sure you're checking these stocks while doing rig check so I can be informed that stuff needs to be replaced.

Rig Status

101 had some cosmetic repair done and got the back window replaced.

Equipment/Supplies

Training/Certifications Up To Date

The State no longer has any provisions and extensions for certifications so please make sure your certifications are up to date and if you need to be recertified, you are making those arrangements. If you need help with anything, please reach out to a Line Officer.

Brian recently taught the classroom portion of the drivers class to Anuj, Khristian, Gaurav, Sunny, Adam, Anil, and Mark. He also did a CPR refresher for Jeff, Mark, Ummehani, Adam, Jegan, Anuj, Khristian, and Daniel. He will be hosting a CPR and First Aid class for prospective and new members on 08/30.

Miscellaneous

If you are currently traveling or will be traveling in the future (while COVID is still a thing), you MUST inform the Line Officers of your start and end date of your travel as well as what States you will be visiting. We are following the State guidelines of quarantine for the States listed on the NJ website. Each travel plan will be looked at by the Line for determination of quarantine status. For the prevention of spread of COVID to our members and our patients, it's imperative that you notify us of your travel plans. Failure to comply with these rules will result in an automatic suspension of your riding privileges and building access privileges indefinitely.
